

The State of Missouri,

To the Sheriff or Coroner of Howard County, Greeting.

Whereas, Sterling Price, late a Member of the Missouri State Convention, from the Sixth Senatorial District, in said State, was expelled from said Convention, by resolution of that body, adopted June 6th 1862 — — — — — in consequence whereof a vacancy now exists in the office of Delegate from the said Sixth Senatorial District, in said Convention.

Now, therefore, I, HAMILTON R. GAMBLE, Governor of the State of Missouri, do hereby direct and command that you, or either of you, give at least ten days' notice according to law, and cause an election to be held on Monday, the 25th day of May, 1863, at the usual places of holding elections in your County, for the election of a Delegate from said Sixth Senatorial District to fill the vacancy aforesaid. And you are further commanded that you certify to me the execution of this writ, and how you executed it.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson this Seventh day of April 1863, of the Independence of the United States, the eighty-seventh, and of the State of Missouri, the forty-third.

BY THE GOVERNOR,

H. R. Gamble

M. Oliver

Secretary of State.
